PHARMACEUTICALS EXPORT PROMOTION COUNCIL OF INDIA

A TRIBUTE TO

PROF. (DR.) C. K. KOKATE

15 August 1947 – 2 November 2026

Distinguished Academician • Visionary Educator • Institution Builder
Leader of the Indian Pharmaceutical Profession

The Pharmaceuticals Export Promotion Council of India (Pharmexcil) expresses its profound sorrow on the passing of Prof. (Dr.) C. K. Kokate, whose outstanding contributions to pharmacy education, pharmaceutical sciences, research, regulation and public health have left an enduring legacy for the nation.

Through his distinguished career as an educator, researcher, administrator and policymaker, Prof. Kokate inspired generations of students and professionals while contributing significantly to the advancement of the Indian pharmaceutical sector.

Prof. Kokate shared a long and valued association with Pharmexcil, serving as its Honorary Advisor and as a distinguished member of the jury for the Outstanding Export Awards conferred annually by the Council. His insightful counsel, professional integrity and objective assessment contributed immensely to recognising excellence in pharmaceutical exports and advancing India's global pharmaceutical leadership.

"His scholarship, wisdom and unwavering commitment to the advancement of pharmacy will continue to inspire generations of students, researchers, regulators and industry leaders."

WITH PROFOUND RESPECT AND HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES
